

867.

4 Montague Place
London
2nd May 1853.

Sir Chas Fellows presents his Complts to Mr Koehn. I would feel obliged by information as to the Coins of Ancient Lycia in the Cabinet at St Petersburg - Sir Chas. is about to engrave all Coins known of Lycia. That is during the use of the Lycian Language or Character which ceases before the age of Alexander. These Coins are known generally by the Tricquetra sometimes with 4 or two arms & after this period the characters resembling the head of a satrap or oriental chief. In Charles wilson greatly obliged by impressions of coins of these characters which may be in the collection at the British Museum to

Dr. Koehn
to be to